

Inter-club tennis, squash at EGC

By A Sports Reporter

THE fourth annual inter-club tennis and squash championships will be staged from April 25 to May 12 at the Emirates Golf Club (EGC).

Angus Cameron of EGC said: "A full representation of the MMI league will be there to vie for honours in the squash event while the tennis tourney will see an additional section for beginners and intermediate players.

The past winners are all there for another shy at the titles and we expect over 150-200 entries for 12-evening tourney."

The tournaments are being backed by Pepsi Cola International and Orient Irrigation Services.

The finals and night buffet cum prize presentation evening will be held on May 12 at the club's swimming pool area.

Also attending the briefing were Peter Harradine of Orient Irrigation Services and Carole Read of the hosts.

Peter Harradine of Orient Irrigation briefing pressmen about the inter-club tennis and squash tournament at the Emirates Golf Club. Also seen are Angus Cameron and Carole Read. — GN photo.